Caught A Dreadful Cold Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thom son, a large importer of fine millinery at 1658 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadfu cold which kept me awake at night and mad ne unfit to attend my work during the day one of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's lough Remedy for a severe cold at that time. which seemed to relieve her so quickly that bought some for myself. It acted like magic nd ! began to improve at once. I am nowledge its merits." For sale by T. J. Willing & Co., Irvingto

THE SANDERS-COLEMAN SUIT The testimony in the Sanders Coleman ease was ended Wednesday night and the jury was allowed to return to their nomes that night with the argeement that they report Friday morning. Thursday SPRING was taken up in arguing the instruction and it is expected that a portion of Friday will be consumed in the same manner. The expense of this jury, which falls on the county, will be about $1,000-just about the amount a dog tax would bring in this county.

The arguments will take up considerable time and the case will hardly go to the jury before Wednesday of next

ANSWER TO RIDDLE:

Judges 14: 5, 6 and 8. Captain W. E. White, Kilmarnock, the only lucky one to get the Soda tickets. Many Old Maid Sodas to Captain White.

Hark! the birds are singing; Spring is here in all its glory, sunshine and rain. But still, this is not all, a modern Drug Store has been opened up at Kilmarnock such as has never been before, full of all kinds of pretty Toilet Articles, Candies, Perfumery, Stationery, Sponges, Combs, Brushes, all kinds of Pure Seasonings, Japanese Vases and China Ware, Cigars and Smoking Tobacco and Garden Seed. The large Soda Fountain will be open in a few days, where we shall dispense the following Soda Waters: Old Maid Soda, Courting Soda, Loving Soda, Anti-Loving Soda, Ball-Bearing Soda, Old Bachelor Soda, Midway Soda, Laughing Soda, and last but not least, a Soda seasoned with the Essence of Quintessence. Don't tell anyone about these kinds of Soda, because it is a profound secret. Just look up over the door and see the sign-
